SKNSCOE/VP/2024-25/08                                         Date: 19/07/2024

Notice

All the students are hereby informed that the examination results are declared and for First year and Second year classes and for third year classes it will declare soon. The students are informed to note the following points

1. The students those are failed and want remedial sessions for any subject should register their names to your respective HoDs ASAP.

2. The students those are failed in more than three subjects and want to attend the classes are informed to take permission from your respective HoDs and attend the classes regularly.

3. Students are informed to note that attendance in class is crucial parameter for giving ICA marks. So, your regular attendance in classes is mandatory

4. Moodle platform is ready for student usage and students are informed to make its utilization as well as give the online test scheduled on it.

5. The students are informed to go through the assessment norms of ISE and ICA. Assessment norms of ISE and ICA are strictly followed while providing internal marks

6. Note that Students are responsible for their regular attendance irrespective of their university results while calculating final term work marks

7. Students are informed to go through academic calendar displayed on departmental notice board.

8. Student should note that I card is compulsory in institute premises and student should show as and when required. Wednesday is only non-uniform day and for other working days Uniform is mandatory for all students.

Vice Principal                                                          Principal

CC

1. All HoDs